

Can you see what is Hidden in Plain Sight?

What: Hidden In Plain Sight (HIPS) is an opportunity for adults to test their knowledge about the signs of teen alcohol or drug use by exploring a teen bedroom. Participants are asked to look for items that may be indicators of alcohol or drug use or may be connected to other risky behaviors. Information on teen-proofing a home will also be available.

Stop by & test your knowledge!

When: April 25, 10:00-3:30pm

Where: Worth County Public Health Building, EOC meeting room
95 9th St. N, Northwood

Who: Any parent/guardian, grandparent, or other caring adult (over age 21)

Hosted by: Worth County Public Health, Worth County Sheriff's Department

