

On 12/05/2017 The Worth County Sheriff's Office took a report from a local convenient store of an individual who wrote 2 bad checks. The checks that were written had been reported stolen in Chicago Illinois. The individual who wrote the checks had presented an ID of the victim of the checks. The individual was later identified as Cora Ashley Dudley of Northwood. Dudley was on surveillance cameras getting fuel and paying for it using the stolen checks and using the ID of the victim. On 12/06/2017 the Worth County Sheriff's Office did a search warrant on Dudley's residence locating more of the stolen checks. Dudley was placed under arrest and charged with 2 counts of Forgery which is a Class D Felony, Identity Theft which is an Aggravated Misdemeanor, and Theft in the 5th Degree which is a Simple Misdemeanor. Dudley is being held in the Worth County Jail on these charges. All subjects are innocent until proven guilty in the court of law.

