

At approximately 2:15 am on January 27, 2018 the Worth county Sheriff's Office received a call from the Diamond Jo Casino to report vandalism. A Worth County Deputy arrived on scene and took a report and viewed damage done to a gaming machine. Upon further investigation Dion King of Mason City was arrested and charged with 2nd degree criminal mischief, a Class D felony. King was booked into the Worth County Jail. All subjects are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.