

On Friday June 30, 2017, the Worth County Sheriff's Office was called to the intersection of Thrush Ave and 390th ST for a two vehicle accident. Natalie Cordle was driving south bound on 390th, stopped at the stop sign then proceeded south and didn't see an east bound vehicle driven by Stephanie Reyerson. Cordle ended up in the south west ditch and Reyerson came to a rest just east of the intersection. Neither driver reported injuries. Cordle was cited for failure to yield to a through highway. Grafton Fire, Manly Fire and Rescue and Worth County Secondary Roads all assisted the Worth County Sheriff's Office.
