

The Worth County Sheriff's Office has received several reports of a female subject stopping at residences posing as a therapy nurse. This female subject posing as a therapy nurse, stated she was working for the Worth County Public Health , or Worth County Home Care. In most cases this subject was welcomed into the home. There were some prescriptions pills taken in some cases. This is a reminder that if someone shows up at you house, make sure they have, and present the proper credential for why they are at your home. Please call the Worth County Sheriff's Office at (641) 324-2481 if you have anyone suspicious come to your house for any reason.
